Naturopathic Doctors in Kingston - Naturopath and Chiropractor Richard Bartlett first developed in the year 1997, a transformative healing system called Matrix Energetics right after undergoing a life-altering event. Dr. Bartlett discovered that he was able to restore mental, emotional, physical and spiritual balance in individuals with gentle touching with focused intent. As an additional extra, he can correct misalignments that had bothered a few of his patients for several years. Richard discovered that he can teach anyone this practice that combines subtle energy along with focused intent, active imagination and quantum physics.

The physical body is a resonating matrix of information within the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns within the resonating matrix may become altered from physical or emotional injury. These disturbances could result in ingrained habits or perceptions that can block a person from reaching a state of prosperity, health, happiness and several positive circumstances. Matrix Energetics works to remove blockages, transfer these embedded patterns and change core beliefs so as to allow the patient to reach their objectives to be able create the type of life and quality of life preferred.

Matrix Energetics practitioners think that the restrictions are the basis of a person's problems and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics could instantly remove these limitations. This particular healing system is believed to remove the sources of both temporary and chronic concerns like for example scoliosis, fibromyalgia, emotional trauma, headaches and muscle spasms amongst others.

The Matrix Energetics system is designed to stand alone. Various practitioners use it to be able to enhance various healing methods although it does not have to be at all combined with whatever other technique. One session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner can transform the belief system of the customer and could alter his or her beliefs about the healing process, the structure of reality and the nature of disease. Commonly, recipients can feel a wave pass through their bodies because their previous view of realism is altered and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

Time and space are not a part of realism at the quantum level. An individual's consciousness could affect how subatomic particles behave, according to the quantum theory. For the reason that the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, which could be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta can appear all over at the same time and also move backward or forward in time. An individual's consciousness can affect these quanta to transform physical matters and emotions. These views and this particular information have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the changes that occur on the cellular level in the patient.
