Crystal Healing Kingston - Crystal healing is the method of utilizing crystals and gemstones to heal, protect and energize the body and the mind. The gemstones could work together to restore clarity, balance and natural vibrational energies which have become depleted or compromised in a patient. Crystal healing has been existing for centuries. It has its origins in Ancient Egypt and there is proof that India and China have been using crystals in various healing rituals for more than 5000 years. These days, crystal healing is regarded as an alternative medicine practice but its roots show it was part of many normal health treatments before.

It is thought that crystals could benefit people on a lot of levels. It is thought that crystals could heal our bodies and our minds by affecting the vibrational patterns of person's surrounding energy fields or their auras. Gems are said to carry their own energy vibrations and their energy can be used to an individual's electromagnetic system for augmentation. Crystal therapy aims to transfer the energy contained in gemstones to a person who needs the same type of energy.

Individuals who use crystal healing enjoy the benefits of the stones by wearing the gems close to their body, or in a pocket near the heart. Various crystal healers will rub gemstones on the person or make use of them directly on chakra points that are the energy centers of the body. Utilizing the gemstones on the chakras helps in order to facilitate the stabilizing, healing and cleansing of energy emanating from each and every chakra. Gemstones in the corresponding colors of yellow, green, blue, indigo, violet, red and orange can be placed next to their equivalent colored chakra. The stones can even be situated close to or onto whatever chakra that will benefit from the healing properties of a certain stone.

If a patient is trying to discourage negative attitudes, habits and different factors which impede their function in day by day life, crystals can be utilized in these conditions to restore the natural flow of energy. It is really discouraged to wear metal while undergoing crystal healing. It is believed that metal acts as an energy stopper. Metal surrounding gemstones is believed by some to be especially harmful because it disrupts the energy flow coming from the gemstone. Because of this, people who want to have on gemstones as part of their crystal therapy often purchase jewelry together with gemstones that are not set in silver or gold.

An essential factor in a gemstone's effectiveness is the condition of the stones. The more pure and higher quality the gemstone, the more healing properties it is believed to contain. Thus, stones that have been dyed or irradiated could have less healing potential in view of the fact that they have been synthetically manufactured, damaged or processed. The color, shape and size of the crystals likewise play a role in their healing properties.

Advocates of the methods of crystal healing are said to have reported a reduction in the levels of physical and mental stress, and enhanced spiritual and health refinement. Particular stones are utilized in order to cure particular ailments. Usually, each and every gemstone utilized in crystal therapy is known for particular healing properties attributed to it and is utilized depending on a patient's requirements.

The majority of practitioners recommend that the gemstones be energized and cleansed previous to a session of healing starts. Gemstone can be washed in water, next set out in the sunlight or moonlight. Various people use sound so as to push away any negative energy contained inside the stones. Making a pure sound with chiming a bell or using a gong next to the stones promotes the renewal of energy within the stones and makes them ready for a new individual to use.

Advanced crystal healing techniques include particular gemstones that have been crafted into wands. The wands are then utilized so as to help remedy illness, remove blockages and redirect positive energy as sort of a "psychic surgery." It is vital to note that though several individuals have found results after participating in psychic surgery, it is inadvisable to substitute crystal healing for primary medical assistance. Crystal healing is better considered as a supplemental source of care for people who want enhanced vitality, energy and health.
